FARMLAND PROTECTION LEGISLATION

● Mr. TORRICELLI. Mr. President, today I introduce legislation which will assist in the critical effort to preserve our nation's most vulnerable farmland. I want to first acknowledge Senator LEAHY's decisive leadership on this issue, and recognize him as the author of the original legislation establishing the Farmland Protection Program in the 1996 Farm Bill. He has been a tireless advocate for this important issue, and I look forward to working closely with him in the future to protect more of our Nation's open spaces.

We have heard a lot during the last decade about the dissolution and destruction of the American Family Farm. Indeed, the family farm is under serious threat of extinction. Today, there are 1,925,300 farms in the United States, the lowest number of farms in our Nation since before the Civil War. The U.S. is losing two acres of our best farmland to development every minute of every day. In my State, New Jersey, we have lost 6,000 farms, or 40 percent of our total, since 1959. This reduction has serious implications for the environment, the economy and our food supply.

The threat comes partially from an anachronistic and unfair inheritance tax that threatens the generational continuity of the family farm and partially from the fact that much of America's farmland is near major cities. As our cities sprawl into neighboring rural areas, our farms are in danger of becoming subdivisions or shopping malls.

Last year I strongly supported a significant reduction in the estate tax to
